Dear Mrs. Manley:

I have your letter of March 19.

I'll get in touch with Belmar and see what can be worked out for a game in that town. In your previous letter you mentioned that you don't believe you will be able to play the game, as you will be away at that time.

I have several spots in mind for the May 10 date, for the Eagles and the Yankees and just as soon as something develops, I'll notify you.

I, too, had a letter from Posey and one from Dr. Martin in Memphis. The Doctor wrote stating that the Cubans and the Memphis Red Sox will play in Little Rock on April 27. Evidently, Mr. Hayes knew the Park was open and naturally tried to get it.

Keep me posted on the Belmar situation.

Very truly yours,

W. A. Leuschner
